MASSIVE PRICE REDUCTION!

This quaint two-bedroom home retains many of its original 1950s features including stunning cornices and ceiling roses whilst still offering the creature comforts of today's modern era with a recently updated bathroom, reverse cycle air-conditioning and solar hot water system.

Beautifully presented, this home has been well maintained and offers two generous sized bedrooms, living room with built-in fireplace, and a separate family room.

The funky, retro kitchen/dining room is spacious and well equipped with ample space to cook up a storm and enjoy your meal with friends and family.

The large workshop with roller door access is a great spot to finish all those little projects.
