Uniquely and Creatively Designed

Unlike so many stock standard homes these days, the comfortable family abode at 44 Carpenter Terrace in Australind is uniquely and creatively designed to really capitalise on its magic location.

As uninterrupted view of the picturesque Leschenault Estuary, framed by dunes and mature gardens appears front and centre from almost any spot in the homes spacious open living area, cleverly positioned at the front of the home.

At eights years of age, the home has been meticulously cared for by its current and only owners that it still displays that unmistakeable shine of something brand new.

Perhaps its the quality fittings and finish throughout in the form of cream floor tiles, t
