THIS IS THE ONE

This is a fabulous home on a good sized block with everything you will ever need for the perfect tree change to beautiful Bridgetown.

One of the longest established homes at the Highlands with wonderful grounds, fully reticulated and all the infrastructure needed for country living without tying you to the property

It is a large modern brick home and its second owners have lavished much love and attention to detail and meticulously maintained and improved the property.

This is one out of the bag and a rare find.

The home has a very large, light, bright open plan living centre but also has a private wing for bedrooms, a stunning master suite at the front of the home and a separate living s
