Hidden Gem on the Waterfront

If you are in the market for a waterfront property along the West Australian coastline, then STOP, LOOK and LISTEN because you won't find another like this hidden gem.

Where else could you stand on your front deck, gaze up and down the WA coastline, and if the desire strikes, just throw a towel over your shoulder and amble down a private path onto the beach-

It's a magical image and here at 18 Double View Terrace in the quiet seaside village of Binningup, that image comes to life, with nothing short of spectacular results.

But what is a magnificent view without an amazing home to complement it- Here at 18 Double View, would-be buyers will have the best of both worlds.

It's just magic.

All decor, including the kitchen, has been expertly selected by a professional interior designer. The effect is soft elegance which allows the beautiful colours outside to take cen
