COUNTRY LIVING AT ITS BEST

You cant help but fall in love with this simply beautiful 45 acre property which is perfectly located right on the doorstep of the picturesque Ferguson Valley, famous for its rolling green hills and award winning wineries & restaurants.

With approximately 700m of Preston River frontage forming the boundary, this historic Lowden homestead is surrounded by lovingly cared for cottage gardens and established lawns which are shaded by mature trees.

Wide wrap around verandahs and French doors greet you as you enter the home which has beautiful high ornate ceilings and stunning timber flooring.

The spacious kitchen is a chefs dream and is perfectly suited for baking and cooking up delicious family meals with an impressive state of the art chefs oven which has both gas and electric ovens and a huge gas cooktop, a centre timber island bench, loads of storage including walk in pantry, overhead cupboards plus a beautiful view out over the green paddock.
