Hidden Treasure!

Located in a quiet cul-de-sac (no pathway access to cul-de-sac) this unsuspecting house is a stunner inside, with fresh painting throughout, a new kitchen, air conditioning, new window treatments and thats just inside, outside there is all new landscaping, an extra concrete driveway to the backyard (which is fully fenced), giving access to the large workshop. Add to that plenty of grassed area for the kids and a large outdoor patio and this house is a must see.

Price: $300 per week
