

3 William Street BOYANUP, WA

Bridge House

Every now and then a property hits the market with an ability to literally take your breath away.

The heritage home available for purchase at 3 William Street, Boyanup is one of those properties.

Bridge House is a vision too beautiful to adequately describe here and really has to be seen to be believed.

Nestled on more than an acre of property, the 1940s homestead has been lovingly and gently coaxed back to even better than its former glory over the past 10 years by the skilled and guiding hand of a fine artist.

Only someone who earns their living with a paintbrush and canvas would approach a restoration with such precision and such attention to detail.

A visit to 3 William Street really does feel like you have stepped back in time.

Major renovation projects have included: A new roof; new exterior jarrah weatherboard clad
