Not Satisfied with an Average Home?

Then you must see the outstanding quality of this Scott Park built home. Only 4 years old in established Treendale, with the look and feel of a country estate, delight in the tranquil gardens and relax under the full length front and rear verandahs which gives the home unsurpassed privacy.

This well designed home has storage to spare with double robes in each of the 4 large bedrooms, a huge walk in linen press adjoining the laundry and brick store room at the back of the garage.

The heart of this impressive home lies in the gourmet kitchen overlooking the family room and leads through the French doors to the separate home theatre.

Retreat to the ultra modern master suite with separate toilet, large walk in robe and ensuite with plenty of room to move.

The sheer quality of this home means that this represents value which may not be repeated again but the owners are on the move and ready to sell so make this your chance to secure
