THE GREAT ESCAPE

This unique A frame residence was designed as a lock up and leave home with minimal maintenance required, making it the perfect holiday home and escape from city living.

Anyone in the market for a permanent abode or holiday home here would be only too familiar with the rare availability of properties able to indulge your need for creature comforts.

The front elevation of the property is represented entirely by heavily tinted glass. The real magic of this inclusion can not be fully appreciated until you are inside the home where views of surrounding bushland flood inside from every angle.

Exposed beams, timber lining throughout and slate floor tiles also combine to create a rustic warmth.

At ground level there's a spacious living area, a kitchen just begging for a new owner who loves to cook, main bedroom with built-in desk, robe and ensuite. There is also a second
