

5 Drayton Way BINNINGUP, WA

Views Both Ways

This property has been designed to capture panoramic views of the ocean and surrounding bushland, right at the top of Drayton Way. The views are here forever and will not be built out. It's hard to decide where to sit - at the front with views of the ocean, or at the back with views across the treetops, all the way to the Darling Scarp.

Currently used as a family holiday home the property is secure and has low maintenance gardens. It is the perfect holiday home or permanent residence with great potential for extensions to make it a large family home.

Inside you will find:

Downstairs

- Security door leading to the downstairs area of the house which is all tiled and serves as a large second living area. There is a large wall of cupboards which can remain in the
