

14 Zedor Way DALYELLUP, WA

SOLD BY TIM COOPER

The builders and owners of this 6 year old home close to the beach in Dalzellup have dared to differ from convention, and what a result! Upon entering this home which is nestled on a 657sqm block from the front raised timber decking you find yourself in a family room with raked ceiling and endless downlights on wire runners which leads to the gourmet kitchen. Further into the house past the lounge room leads to the four bedrooms and two bathrooms. There is a lot to like about this beach inspired design. Features include:

- Great sized family room with raked ceiling and downlights on wire runners
- Ducted reverse cycle air-conditioning
- Meals area adjoining kitchen and family room
- Quality floor tiles to living areas
- Gable roof timber deck to front of house plus full length side patio featuring liquid li
