Resort Living

They say location is important and nothing beats this location in Lakewood Shores Estate - the street is lined with deciduous trees and across the road is a well manicured park with walk trails and gazebo. This modern, Tuscan inspired residence is situated on a corner block, with the front of the home overlooking the park and there is handy rear access for parking your boat or caravan.

There is a double garage with remote door as well as a tool shed built into the side of the garage.
