RARE PIECE OF HISTORY

Take a moment and allow yourself a chance to appreciate this very special home. Originally built in 1891 (but not Heritage Listed), the home and the surrounding 10 acres were originally owned by the Flynn Family. The whole property was then converted into the Golf Course & Club Rooms called Sandridge Park Golf Links.

This is a beautiful, but rare piece of Bunbury's history is situated on a 2034m² block.
