Serenity in Galway

Imagine waking up, making yourself a hot drink and wandering out to your alfresco to enjoy the sun's rays as you watch the local birdlife frolicking over on the Brunswick River. This could be your reality.

I invite you to consider this well-designed family home positioned in one of the most enviable spots in Galway Green, a northern Estate of Australind. Only minutes to local shops, schools (for young and not-so-young) plus a short drive to the South West's gateway to freedom from the hustle and bustle of Big City life.

Built by Scott Park Homes with a central living area, its design maximises space and functionality to ensure gatherings with your family or friends is easily catered for. Featuring a large gourmet kitchen, with ample bench space with granite tops and Bosch double-door fridge, this place is going to encourage the chef or cook in anyone. Warm tones and natural hues add a sense of homeliness which is enhanced by allowing the sunlight to stream through.
