Keen for a Seachange?

This neat and tidy property is located at the top of a cul-de-sac with views across farmland to the east and parkland views in front. On its own 461m² block it is the perfect weekender or permanent home, giving you more time at the beach and less time maintaining a big block!

The garage is for a single car, but also has extra room for storage. There is also room next to the garage for parking an additional car.

With a large paved patio area at the rear and new front patio there are plenty of areas to kick back and relax.

This property perfect for a retiree, first home buyer or the astute investor who wishes to
