TRANQUIL TREE TOP LIVING

Walking through the front doors of this magnificent rammed earth home you will instantly be taken away by the soaring cedar trussed roof and stunning views that stretch out over the estuary to Bunbury by day and the city lights by night.

Casting rays of light across the rammed earth, the stained-glass window is a breathtaking feature that is a stunning focal point of the main living areas.

The outdoors are brought in with the abundant use of jarrah framed windows, letting natural light in and allowing the views to be captured from the open plan kitchen, dining and living area.

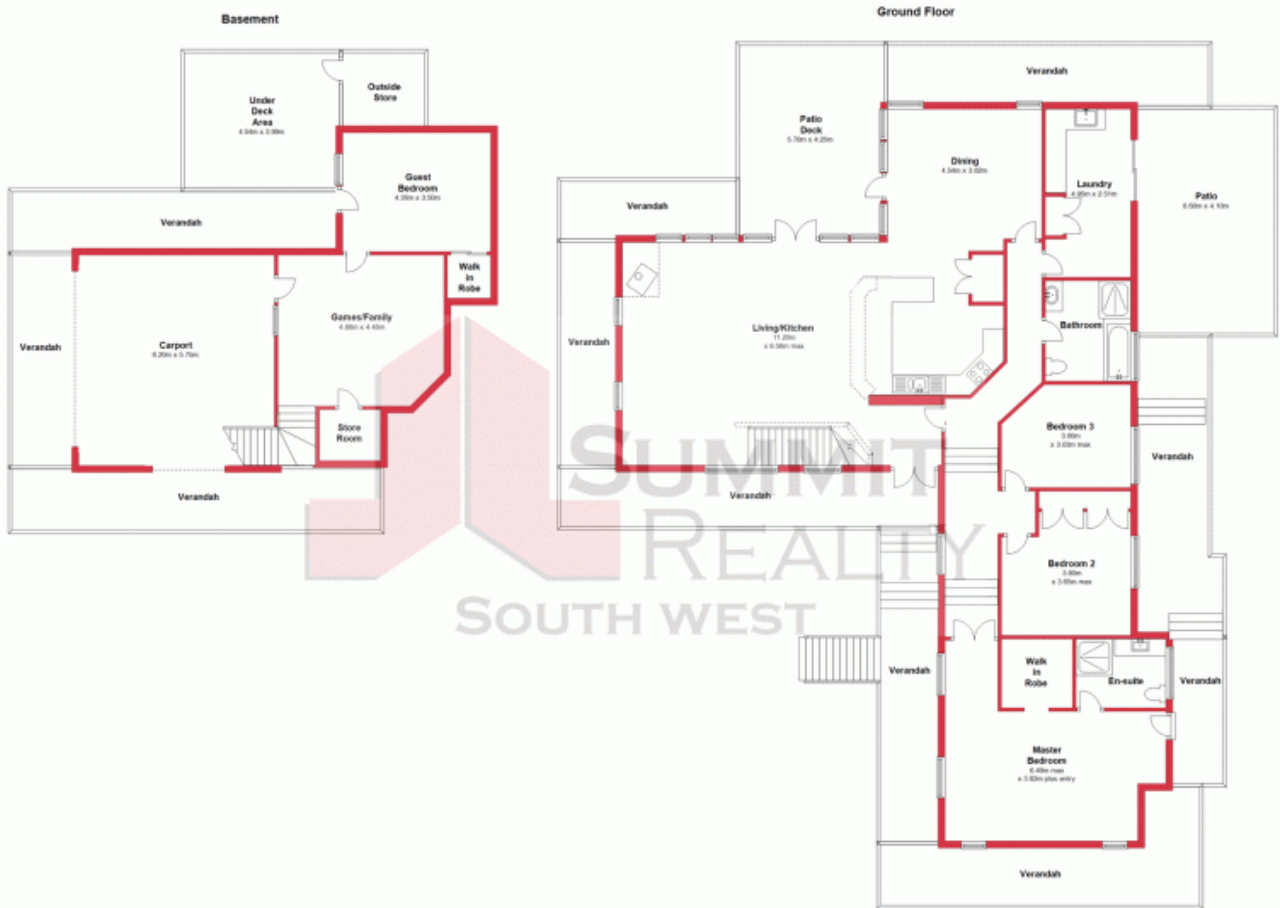

This character filled home features:
