STUNNING FAMILY HOME

High ceilings, high quality tiled flooring and galleries of windows emphasise natural light and cooling breezes throughout. The rear doors open up to provide a seamless connection to the large rear deck, encouraging alfresco entertaining all throughout the year, a perfect point of relaxation to watch the children enjoy the solar heated salt water pool and spa.

There are four generous bedrooms, plus a study, each styled with modern and elegance that features throughout the home. This includes the impressive split level theatre room with projector screen.

There are not enough words to describe just how remarkable this one of a kind home is. With too many features to list this home must be seen in the flesh. We invite you to come along to our next open for inspection, or better yet contact us for your own private viewing
