"Jake's Place"

If you have ever walked around Binningup you would have been sure to notice this gorgeous cottage and wonder what lies behind the white picket fence-

You will be drawn by it's close proximity to the beach and the coastal charm which oozes from this property, the moment you step onto the front verandah.

With the bonus of an ancillary dwelling which could be converted to a granny flat with shire approval, this property has the potential to accommodate plenty of family and friends.

The house has been lovingly renovated to make it super comfortable - a large living area at the front provides plenty of room for lounge and dining, complete with a reverse cycle air conditioner and a tile fire. The kitchen has been recently renovated and has cream cup
