Lifestyle Living at it's Best

They say location is everything, so it's not hard to capture the feeling of a relaxed rural lifestyle in Burekup, whilst still being close enough to everything a busy family needs, with Australind 10 minutes away and Bunbury only 20 minutes away.

This property has been carefully laid out on an acre to suit a growing family, with a massive country style house, oversized garage, huge shed and pool.

Inside you will find:

- A lovely entry leading to the open planned living area, the jarrah look floors and the French doors create a sense of space, where you can configure your living area any way you like with ample space for dining, family or a pool table. A large theatre room is sepa
