Sea, Sun & Serenity

Nestled deep the Tuart forest, north of Myalup you will find this beautiful home which blends seamlessly with its natural environment. Poised on the brow of a hill the property has been laid out to maximize the winter sun and enjoy the view of the surrounding bushland.

With close proximity to the beach you can grab your fishing rod and enjoy the solitude of being the only one on the beach or for the keen birdwatcher, head to the shores of Lake Preston, a well known bird sanctuary.

Built in 2007 this home has an easy going elegance, which epitomizes a relaxed seaside lifestyle.
