A Breath of Fresh Air

It's a rare treat to have the opportunity to secure a home in this lovely cul-de-sac. The solitude as well as the views of the ocean & across the trees to the Darling Scarp, means that houses in this street are tightly held.

Built in 1986, this solid brick and tile home has been lovingly maintained by the current owners. Follow the agapanthus lined pathway up to the front entry of the home and be immediately captivated by the ocean views.

Inside the double doors you will find:

A wide entry with lovely timber laminate floors that look like real Marri, that extend throughout the home.

The spacious master suite at the front of the home has a large walk in robe and recently r
