ALL THE WORK IS DONE!

The owners of this very functional home have prepared it for sale so the buyers don't have another cent to spend.

There has been a full upgrade of the kitchen, including brand new appliances. The house has been fully re-painted throughout to create a bright and airy feel and there are new floor coverings in many of the rooms, including hard wearing vinyl to the kitchen.

Located in East Bunbury and on an 809m² block of land, the home comprises four bedrooms, one bathroom, a second shower and toilet in the laundry, plus a study/dining room and two living areas, with a front lounge.

For outside storage, there is also a large lockable shed and plenty of room to build a workshop.
