

1 Brockman Street Bridgetown, WA

AN ABSOLUTE DELIGHT

This solidly built deco/retro home is a delight. She has beautiful polished Jarrah floors throughout, high ceilings, decorative ceiling roses, deep timber skirtings and lovely original timber sash windows. All the features you would expect in a classy mid 20th century Bridgetown country home.

From the quiet cul de sac it is only a hop, step and a jump into town, really, only 500 metres to cafes and shops.

This 750 sq.m property has a surprisingly large, meticulously maintained two bedroom home with generous living space/dining, large bedrooms, bathroom and a lobby with a deep back porch for summer outdoor living.

Lovely French doors separate the living room from the rest of the house and out onto the shaded side of the home. This room has its original fireplace and reverse cycle air conditi
