

47 Blechynden Street BRIDGETOWN, WA

A LITTLE CHARMER

Cosy 1950s cottage in a select part of town on a quiet street. She has her original Metters wood stove and a gas stove in the kitchen which is big enough for family dining, has good fridge space and R/C air con for all seasons.

There is another wood fire in the sunken lounge with high raked ceilings, double doors to the back patio and north facing windows to capture the winter sun.

The main bedroom is very large with R/C air con, it is carpeted as are the other two bedrooms. All rooms have high ceilings. A very spacious family bathroom and separate laundry,

Price: $230,000
