Peaceful Lifestyle Change

Whether it be the need to permanently get away from the day to day hustle and bustle, or somewhere to relax on weekends, a rare opportunity exists to live the "Traditional Aussie" lifestyle. In this delightful open planned timber and iron cottage, situated on over an acre of land, with a creek and spring fed waterholes, an opportunity exists to go back to a way of life that many can only dream of.

The bathroom follows on the traditional style being housed in an outbuilding with a toilet, bath and shower serviced by a gas hot water system.

With so many simple features combining to create this unique property, a viewing is necessary to get a true feel of the lifestyle change it could provide for you.

Price: $270,000
