

15 Robinia Way Street KANGAROO GULLY, WA

AUTUMN PARADISE

This 3,389sq.m block in Bridgetown Gardens slopes gently to the north and is just perfect for a fabulous new home with decks to the rear to catch the stunning rural views and the northerly winter sun.

The block is on a corner and has seven gorgeous mature Claret Ash trees on the southern boundary and seven Chinese Pistachios on the eastern boundary, both are just changing to the most magnificent autumn colours. Now is the time to see this lovely block all ready to build with power and water connected and fenced on three sides. There is access from both Robinia Way and Magnolia Retreat.

There really is nothing more to say, the photos try to capture the essence of the block but have not managed to do so.

It is worth a trip out to have a look, just a short drive out from town.
