Resort Lifestyle Awaits

These two identical split level townhouses have been designed to capture views across the beautiful Binningup golf course and you can even catch a glimpse of the clear blue water.

Built in 2010 by renowned local builder Clarke & Forrest these survey strata properties epitomise a relaxed coastal lifestyle.

On the bottom level is a double garage with clever storage area which is under the stairs & can be accessed from either the garage or from outside the property a handy place to store things and keep the garage clutter free.

On the second level there is a large open planned living area, leading to an outside balcony that has glass balustrading and louvre windows at one end to regulate the sea-breeze. W
