Your Dream Lifestyle Starts Here

If its peace and quiet you are after, this property is sure to tick lots of boxes for a peaceful lifestyle, with the added convenience of the beach and everything else you need close by.

Located at the front of Freshwater Lakes, this 1.05ha property is tucked away at the end of a quiet cul-de-sac with neighbors only on one side of the property.

This generous sized family home was built in 2008. Step inside the wide entry and you will find bamboo floors that extend through the living area and down the hallway. The living area is at the northern end of the home and overhead windows flood the area with warm winter sunshine. The high ceilings and the timber pole in the centre of the living area adds a nice rural touch. There are plenty of options to place a dining suite, and large carpeted lounge area and a large kitchen that can accommodate all the family. The kitchen has a built in pantry, dishwasher, good sized fridge and a nifty nook that opens to the lounge.
