LEADERS IN AIRCONDITIONING & HEATING

This well presented business that has been operating for 23 years by the same owners, is being offered at a very realistic price.

The present owners are looking for a change and have decided to sell. Someone experienced in the air conditioning industry would make this profitable business into an absolute winner.

The owner will also consider selling the freehold property as an incentive to own and run the whole enterprise.

Price: $142315
