Seize the Opportunity

Set way back from the road you will find this cute cottage overlooking public open space and close to the Binningup oval. Freshly painted throughout, this property would make a perfect lock up and leave weekender or addition to your rental portfolio.

The bedrooms are all located at the other end of the home, the larger two have good sized recesses for built in storage. The bathroom is centrally located with a bath, shower recess and vanity. The laundry has a sliding door to the outside, built in linen press, trough and a separate toilet.

There is a semi enclosed carport with lockable door on the western side of the home, with plenty of additional parking space.
