Simply Stunning

If you are looking for a home to embrace a gentler pace of life, this beautiful property ticks all the boxes.

In 2008 the original cottage was extended and renovated to provide a large family home with a unique blend of modern touches as well as all the charm of a bygone era - high, ornate ceilings, Jarrah floorboards and solid timber trims.

From the moment you step into the portico at the front door you know that this house will be something special. Come inside and you will find:

- French doors separate the sunroom from a large bedroom.
- On the other side of the hall is the master bedroom which has its own French doors leading to the front deck, the perfect place to sit and read or enjoy a quiet drink in the evening as the sun goes down. The master suite has a whole wall of built in cupboards for stor
