Treetop Hideaway

If you're looking for a weekend getaway, this gorgeous cottage in Myalup will allow you to escape to peace and quiet, interrupted only by occasional birdsong and maybe the sounds of the crashing waves. The location is hard to beat with a quick stroll down the street for an icecream on the way to the beach.

Tucked away from the road, this private cottage has a lovely outlook across the peppy trees. Wind your way up the stairs through the trees and you will find:

- Large open planned living area with solid timber floors, a cosy fireplace, downlights and large windows for plenty of natural light and outlook through the trees.
- A generous L shaped kitchen occupies one end of the living area, with crisp white cabinetry and granite-look laminate benchtops, electric oven, cooktop, a rangehood recessed in o
