

Quindalup, WA

The Touchup Fella

The Touchup Fella gets rid of all your scrapes, scratches, misjudgements and stone chips on your pride and joy (car).

The current owner would like someone to buy his business and equipment at a very reasonable price, he is prepared to stay on for a period of time to train someone. He operates mainly in the Busselton/Dunsborough area but will travel to other areas in the Southwest when requested.

He works his own hours and has built up a regular client base including car yards. This business would suit someone with painting experience.
