I See the Sea!

It's a rare treat to have the opportunity to secure a home in this lovely cul-de-sac, and this one even has views of the ocean. The central location means that the beach, oval and school bus stops are only a short walk away.

Built in 1986, this solid brick and tile home sits in an elevated position with ocean views from inside and outside the home.

Come inside and you will find:

A second living area adjoins the kitchen with spaces that can be used for dining and family areas. The family room is flooded with natural light from the large window and the slidi
