Seaside Getaway

If its peace and quiet you are after, then this cute weatherboard beach cottage in a quiet part of town might just tick the boxes. Flat blocks are a rarity in this coastal town, so this one will be sought after with plenty of scope to remove the cottage and build your dream home when the time is right!

The property has:

- Shady front deck at the front of the home, perfect for a BBQ or relaxing after a day at the beach.
- Step through the front door into a cozy living space with room for a couple of couches

The house is situated at the front of the block providing plenty of space out the back for active kids & a game of backyard cricket. If a shed is required, the rear of the property
