

9/61 Albert Road Street Bunbury, WA

PROMOTE YOU

This one of a kind business is being offered for sale at a very realistic price. As at the 18/12/2023 the Sellers have substantially reduced the sale price of this business.

This business comprises the most modern machinery available and is maintained to the highest level on a regular schedule.

The location of the business would be second to none, on one of Bunbury's busiest roads.

Included in the sale is a library in excess of 15,000 logos and digitised images of long standing clientele. There is virtually nothing that this enterprise cannot embroider, print or display on any item. The present owner takes very little time (2 - 3 hours per week) in the running of the business, it is mainly run by staff with years of experience. This business, with a new owner, could expand using the existing list of clients in the database.
